How do we adapt our instruction to meet the demand placed on students with iLearn while not losing site of important literacy practices? In this workshop, we will explore the best practices in ELA instruction and lesson planning to create engaging lessons that push critical thinking and exploration.

Workshop Agenda

- Explore 3 levels of learning: surface, deep and transfer
- Examine highly engaging and impactful structures for an ELA classroom
- Delve into questioning strategies that promote critical thinking and analysis with complex texts

Register