

Facilitating Conversations About Race in Your Classroom

This FREE webinar titled, “Facilitating Conversations About Race in Your Classroom” presented by the Indiana Department of Education will provide participants with guidance to engage in difficult conversations with students. The interactive session will cover vocabulary to utilize, a foundation to help apply that vocabulary, and instructional strategies to use when reading and discussing race with students.

We will offer two free sessions:
September 9 and 22 both from 4-6 PM.

September 09, 2020
