

Virtual and FREE K-2 Virtual Teaching Best Practices

September 24, 2020
4:00-5:00 EST
Virtual

Cost: Free

Engaging young learners in a virtual environments can be a challenge - for parents, teachers, and students. This webinar will provide practical examples of online explicit instruction to engage even our youngest learners. Through the lens of literacy, this session will provide modelling of explicit classroom instruction, applicable for any content area with both high tech and low tech resource options.

Register

Workshop Audience

- This workshop is intended for teachers, coaches, and administrators who have K-2 students.

Workshop Objectives

- Plan for evidence based instruction.
- Participate in modeled lessons using technology tools and low-tech resources.
- Identify additional resources to assist in planning.

Michelle Elia works on behalf of the Ohio Department of Education as one of two Ohio Literacy Leads, a role that allows her to work with district administrators, teachers, and regional consultants across the state. Elia serves as a board member of the Northern Ohio branch of the International Dyslexia Association, is a member of Ohio's What Matters Now Network, a Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling trainer, and literacy advisor at both Youngstown State and Walsh Universities. Elia is passionate about literacy, the science of reading, and evidence based instructional practices that are inclusive of all students.

Contact Susie Gardiner for more information
sgardiner@ciesc.org | 317-759-5554

Visit plconnect.info for more professional learning events and resources.

